

London Dry Gin

‘The Epitome of London Dry Gin’

- Premium quality, traditional strength and traditionally distilled London dry gin
- New bottle and label design updates the traditional London Hill Gin packaging, to create a more stylish, contemporary brand with greater shelf presence and premium
- Introduction of new black and metallic silver labelling with fine gold touches, adds further value to the brand
- ‘Since 1785’ heritage
- Gold Medal winner at The International Wine & Spirit Competition in 2000, 2001 and 2003. Described by the judges as “the epitome of London Dry Gin. Good balance of fresh botanicals with juniper just peeping out above the rest. Complex flavours with coriander and angelica showing on smooth palate. Bright, fresh finish”
- Distilled to a unique recipe using a very high number of botanicals compared to many other gins
- Traditionally distilled in copper pot stills
- “Excellent base for a great Martini cocktail” (HOT magazine)
- Bottled in a range of sizes – 1 litre at 43% vol. 1.5 litre, 70cl and 5cl at 40% vol.

